

IASF RULEBOOK

Part B – Race Rules & By-Laws

International Airlines Ski Federation

4. General Policies & Administratives

4.1. Foreword

In 1960 for the first time airline crews met for a friendly skiing competition. This took place during the long layovers airline crews had in Anchorage in those days. Arctic Valley was the first area they met. But soon the event moved to Mt. Alyeska. Our event grew larger and larger and eventually became the World Airlines Ski Championships. In 1976 the venue was held at Mount Hood, Oregon and from there continued to spread all over the world. As the World Airlines Ski Championships grew larger, the need for proper organization became evident. So in 1977 the International Airlines Ski Federation was founded in Les Diablerets, Switzerland and thereafter was chartered as a non profit organization under the law of the State of Washington. Being so for the last decades it was necessary to update our files and status. Renewing our incorporation as a non profit organization had to be done. In May 2009 the International Airlines Ski Federation was incorporated as a non profit organisation under the law of the State of Florida. It shall be within the responsibility of the Board of Directors to be aware that all necessary requirements regarding the incorporation are fulfilled.

4.2. About IASF

The International Airlines Ski Federation is sanctioning the World Airlines Ski Championships. Competitions are held in Alpine Skiing (Slalom and Giant Slalom), in Nordic Skiing (Distance and Sprint) and in Snowboarding (PGS or SBX). Presently more than 100 airline ski teams are registered under IASF. Per airline one team is allowed. Each must have a Team Captain (TC). Registration as member airline is done very informally by naming the name of the Team Captain to any member of the Board (preferably to the President). The Team Captain then will be provided with all necessary information. There is no fee to register a team. Individual entries for any event are not possible and will not be regarded. Please see your Team Captain. He is also the main source for information to team members. Although the number of racers per competition is limited (see race rules), there is no limit to the overall number of participants per team. Typically our race week is held in March every year, but due to snow conditions or resort availability, this can be adjusted by vote. Information about the week will be available after the board of directors has coordinated with the resort by end of September and has conducted his fall meeting.

By about Mid-October all registered Team Captains will obtain the information about our venue by e-mail. You will also find the same information on our web site www.airlineski.com

4.3. About Team Captains

The Team Captains are the central and most important people at IASF. They are the main source of communication between the members and IASF leadership.

Responsible for forming and keeping the team together the Team Captains will be also responsible for the registration of the entire team (there are no individual entries accepted) and of insuring that the team members adhere to the race and resort rules. The Team Captains are welcome to take part at the TC- meetings, where their voices will be heard, they will get pertinent information on the IASF proceedings and may vote for their respective Board of Directors. Although the Team Captains have a lot of duties before and during the event, their roles are key to a successful and rewarding event for all those participants. The Team Captains assist in the World Airlines Ski Championships continuing on as a premier event for the airline ski clubs and their members. Team Captain's main communication platform is ZULIP and the web address is

<https://iasfbod.zulipchat.com>

- To be reached this way it is necessary that the Team Captains keep their e-mail address updated with the IASF Webmaster
- To reach all Team Captains via eMail at once, use:

4.4. Revisions and Amendments

Revisions will be conducted, if necessary, at each Annual Fall Meeting. Necessity occurs, for example when:

- the safety and health of any individual or a group of individuals is endangered,
- the safe conduct of one or more competitions is endangered,
- the conduct of the event is endangered due to economical reasons,
- legal provisions change
- decisions / proposals made by the BoD come into effect (for details refer to § 5.1.3.(e) § 9.1.18.

4.4.1. Distribution and Publishing

After a revisions approval, which will be given by the Board of Directors during the Annual Fall Meeting, the latest Version of the IASF Rulebook will be published on the IASF Internet Homepage where it can be downloaded. As handheld devices such as smartphones, tablets and similar devices nowadays offer a great opportunity of having all relevant information electronically and easily available any time and in order to save resources, reduce costs for production, shipping and disposal of unused copies, decision was made that only a small number of copies will be produced and distributed amongst the Board of Directors, the race officials and future WASC organizers.

4.4.2. Marking of Changes, Adaptions and Revisions

All revisions and amendments are mentioned in the Revision Bulletin at the beginning of the rulebook and indicate the changes to the last published edition.

4.4.3. Applicability of Terms and Conditions

For brevity the pronoun "he" is used throughout the rulebook and means any person who is addressed, irrespective of gender. The term "IASF" as used in the context is standing for International Airlines Ski Federation.

8. Snowboard

8.1. Snowboard Specifics

For Basic Rules refer to § 5.1.5.3

8.1.1. General

All Snowboard Events have to be set in PGS Style or SBX Style (see definition below).

8.1.2. Course Definition PGS

A Giant Slalom should present a variety of long, medium and small turns. The competitors should be free to choose their own line between the gates, which must not be set down the fall-line of the slope. The course should be set "symmetrically" not to favor goofy or regular riders.

The parallel is a competition where two competitors ride simultaneously side by side down two courses. The setting of the courses, the configuration of the ground and the preparation of the snow must be as identical as possible.

8.1.3. Course Definition SBX

A Snowboard Cross should preferably be of a medium pitch (10 degrees +/- 2) with varied terrain. The SBX slope should be between 15 and 40m wide (the wider the better). Under certain conditions for short sections (50m or less) the course width may be minimum of 10 m.

The most important part is from the start to the first turn (approx. 80 m straight) where it should be not too steep, a long flat area with features to separate the competitors before the first banked turn. (f.ex. with 3 – 5 Rollers or other terrain features)

The direction change of the first turn shall be no less than 100 degrees. It is usually the largest turn of the course, wide enough to accommodate ALL competitors at once.

The ideal IASF SBX slope will allow for the construction of all or some of the following terrain features:

- a. Banks (crescent shape)
- b. Single, Double or Triple Rollers
- c. Offset Rollers
- d. Medium or long GS turns when building a feature is not possible
- e. Other terrain features can be built, but competitor security considerations must always be a priority
- f. Gap jumps and corner jumps are not permitted under any circumstances
- g. The course features should be designed so that the competitors do not have to brake before the features

8.1.4. Course Setting PGS

- a. When the two courses are set, the left course (looking from the top) will be set with red poles and the red triangular banners and the right course (looking down from the top) will be set with blue poles and blue triangular banners.
- b. Triangular banners have to be used.
- c. The same course setter establishes the courses and makes sure they are identical and parallel. They must ensure that the course flow is smooth and that there is a variety in the curves (very pronounced curves) and that the course causes rhythm changes. In no case should this event resemble a long, straight run from top to bottom.
- d. The recommended number of gates should be 20 to 25.
- e. The first gate in each course must be placed not less than 8m and not more than 10m from the start without direction change (frontside <-> backside edge)
- f. Shortly before the finish line, after the last gate, the separation between the two tracks must be well defined so that they direct each competitor towards the finish line. The course setter must place the last gate in such a manner that the competitors are guided toward the center of each finish line.
- g. The last gate must not be a direction change.
- h. The distance between two corresponding markers (from turning pole red course to turning pole blue course) must be 7 to 12 meters.

8.1.5. Course Setting SBX

Course Length:	650 - 1300 m
Vertical Drop:	100 - 250 m
Slope Width:	20 - 40 m
Track Width	8 - 16 m
Start Length (to first turn):	80 - 60 m
Start Inclination (to first bank):	8 degrees (+/- 2)
Finish Line Width:	20 m (+/- 5 m)
Finish Area Length:	40 m (+/- 10 m)

- a. Triangular shaped flag gates have to be used consisting of a short (stubby) flex pole (turning pole and one long (slalom) outside pole.*
- b. Consecutive gates must alternate in colour except banana gates (considered one gate, therefore same colour)*
- c. In certain circumstances competitors may be required to pass between two gates of the same colour (e.g. corridors)*
- d. Skillful use of the terrain with integration of the terrain into the setting is highly recommended. Blind jumps or terrain features where the competitors are unable to see a landing are not permitted at all.*

8.1.6. Vertical Drop PGS

- a. For Parallel Giant Slalom (PGS) the vertical drop of the course should be between 120 – 200 meters.*
- b. The PGS has to be set as follows:*
 - o 11-15% of the vertical drop in meters = the number of turns by rounding up or down to the nearest decimal number. It is recommended to set around 25 gates in the PGS with a horizontal distance (turning pole to turning pole) of max. 25 meters.*
 - o In general, the courses should have the same variety of terrain with enough width like a regular giant slalom.*

8.1.7. Vertical Drop SBX

- For Snowboard Cross (SBX) the vertical drop should be between 100 – 250 meters.

8.1.8. Finish PGS

- The line of the finish must be parallel with the line of start
- Each finish line must be at least 8 meters wide
- The finish line must be separated by a post or vertical banner with a maximum width of about 1 meter
